Introduction:

Welcome to Plan it Out. These Terms and Conditions ("Agreement") govern your use of our website and services. By accessing or using our website, you agree to be bound by this Agreement.

User Eligibility:

You must be at least 18 years old to use our website. By using our website, you represent and warrant that you meet the eligibility criteria.

User Obligations:

You agree to use our website only for lawful purposes and in compliance with this Agreement. Prohibited activities include all illegal activities in your country of origin.

Website Services:

Plan it Out now offers a two-tiered service approach. Initially, users will receive a free AI-generated outline of their business plan upon entering a brief description of their project. Users may then opt to purchase a comprehensive business plan for a fee, which is developed by our team of experts after the user completes an in-depth questionnaire.

Payment and Delivery:

Upon payment for the comprehensive business plan service, users will be prompted to complete a detailed questionnaire to provide our team with the necessary information to create a tailored business plan. The completed masterplan will be delivered to the user within 3 business days from the submission of the completed questionnaire.

Questionnaire and Customization:

Our comprehensive business plan is contingent upon the user's completion of a detailed questionnaire, which is crucial for understanding the specific needs and goals of their business. The information provided in the questionnaire will directly influence the customization and relevance of the final masterplan.

User Data and Consent:

By using our website and services, including the questionnaire for the full masterplan, you consent to the collection, use, and processing of your personal information as described in our Privacy Policy. You agree that your information provided through the questionnaire will be used to create your personalized business plan.
